

Workshop Proposal for "Call for Creative Futures" – conference 10.10.2006

Topic Ideas for Future Collaboration and Research

Organizers CreaM – team in collaboration with University of Oulu & City of Oulu

The workshop

This workshop is a discussion platform to collaboratively design future scenarios and ideas for future research and development activities for creative industries. The objectives of the workshop are:

1. To develop a community of researchers, artists and other people working with the creative industries
2. To collaboratively develop and present new ideas and approaches for future joint research & development activities (target: 2-3 concrete ideas)
3. To initially explore different approaches for funding these activities nationally or internationally; for example FP7

Audience/Target group

The workshop is intended to individuals who are

1. actively pursuing research directions related to creative industries
2. searching for new innovative ideas for future creative industries
3. artists willing to promote their ideas or themes
4. interested in new collaboration possibilities with researchers and industry partners
